

Postal Connections to Open First Idaho Store

BOISE — Idaho's first Postal Connections will open this month in Boise, run by local entrepreneurs Ron and Peggy Bishop.

Postal Connections, based in Frisco, Texas, with almost 50 stores nationwide, offers packing, shipping and business services.

"They go above and beyond to treat people as people, instead of as transactions," Ron Bishop, who has a background in retail and regional management, said in a press release.

The couple plans to open additional stores in the Boise area in the future. The grand opening for the Boise Postal Connections, at 10673 West Lake Hazel Road, is set for Oct. 26, which will include a sweepstakes for an Apple Watch Series 5.
